Macro Update

- Mixed Economic Signals: Indonesia's inflation fell to a three-year low of 1.55%, signaling effective monetary management, but manufacturing remains in contraction, with the PMI at 49.6. Fiscal policies, including a planned VAT hike to 12% and minimum wage increases, face public and industry resistance, highlighting challenges in balancing growth and fiscal stability.
- Strong Investment Momentum: Significant investments, such as Microsoft's $1.7 billion AI program, Apple's $1 billion commitment to local manufacturing, and ExxonMobil's $15 billion carbon capture initiative, underscore confidence in Indonesia's digital economy, renewable energy, and industrial downstreaming potential.
- Robust Foreign Exchange Reserves: Indonesia's foreign exchange reserves declined slightly to USD 150.2 billion in November 2024, down from a record high of USD 151.2 billion in October. The reserves remain strong, covering 6.5 months of imports, ensuring macroeconomic stability amid global uncertainties and providing a buffer against external shocks.
- Governance and Regional Diplomacy: Anti-corruption measures, voter discontent in the Jakarta elections, and a focus on maritime security reflect domestic governance priorities. On the international stage, Indonesia continues its leadership in ASEAN, rejecting China's South China Sea claims while balancing BRICS and OECD ambitions.
- Sustainability and Digital Transformation: Indonesia's green transition faces hurdles, with projects like the B40 biodiesel program and carbon trading initiatives encountering implementation challenges. Meanwhile, digital transformation initiatives, including the "Digital Villages" program and AI-focused data centers, highlight Indonesia's potential, though regulatory clarity remains essential to sustaining momentum.

In addition, the EGM also reshuffled its board of directors, putting Teddy Nuryanto Oetomo as President Director and Jason Laurence Greive as Vice President Director. (Kontan)

INCO: Credit Rating Upgrade

S&P Global Ratings upgraded PT Vale Indonesia Tbk's (INCO) credit rating from 'BB' to 'BB+' with a stable outlook. With more competitive financing access, PT Vale is committed to driving sustainable growth and supporting the downstreaming of Indonesia's mineral industry. (Company)
